

Dear Parents

I hope you are all keeping well. Thank you for all your support in helping your children with home learning over the past seven weeks.

I wanted to reassure you that the safety of all our community is the priority for me as headteacher of our school.

The government have made announcements that are confusing to us all. Headteachers everywhere are hoping that there will be clarity and guidance this afternoon, as we have had nothing so far.

Obviously, we have many plans but until we have more guidance I cannot give you anymore information.

As a parent myself, I fully understand your concerns and frustrations that I can give you no further indication how a phased return would work safely for the governments proposed years.

The safety of all will be the forefront of any decisions I make.

I will continue to keep you informed as the situation evolves.

God Bless

Julia Pearce
