

Keyworker important information

Dear Parents

We have received a much higher than expected response for requests for places for Keyworker children and are now at capacity. We will not therefore be able to accept any extra children to this setting from now on. A letter will be coming from Mrs Pearce later today explaining this further.

Kind regards

Laura Allen

School Business Manager